The buildings of the concentration camp included low wooden Ell quarters, a hospital, workshops, a motion picture theatre, a laundry, an electric shop, mass halls, a kitchen and a bakery. Troops were seen drilling with seven 152-mm artillery pieces. Colonel Gruenkhen (fine) was referred to as the commanding officer in the concentration camp. However, source was not sure whether Gruenkhen was his correct name. Colonel Skomara (fine) was identified as the administrative officer in the
05)/4		Fanzer Schule. Captain Vasilenkov (fnu) was in tharge of maintenance and German personnel in the concentration camp.	25X1

	7.	Major Zalogin (fnu), apparently administrative officer in the Oranienburg Castle, left the post on 22 November, allegedly for a 10 day indoctrination course in Cottbus. The major previously told source that the unit quartered in the castle had been in the Zehdenick-Vogelsang area throughout the summer. (2)
	8.	Lieutenant Colonel Boshkov (fnu), commanding officer of a 76.2-mn AT actillary regiment in the restricted Meisse stadt area, told source that his spriny officer, Captain Kovalenko (fnu), went to Cottbus on 21 Hovember to attend a 10 day indoctrination course. Captain Borikov (fnu) was acting supply officer during this period. Lajor Makushin (fnu), supply officer of the 100-mn AT artillary regiment, Loft for the U.S.S.R. on 23 Movember for reassignment. His successor had not been determined. Source also learned that Lieutenant Colonel Knochkov's deputy was Lajor Makharov (fnu). (1)	3
